INSTRUCTIONS as to the transmission of a (Soldier's documents on transfer, posting, &c.

1. When a soldier is transferred, posted, or detached for duty for a lengthened period, his commanding officer and officer i/c records will send to his new commanding officer and officer i/c records respectively, the documents mentioned on this form. No documents will be forwarded in blank except the regimental and company conduct sheets.

2. When a soldier is attached to the permanent staff of the yeomanry the whole of his documents (excepting his original attestation and regimental conduct sheet, which will be kept by the officer i/c cavalry records), will be sent to his new commanding officer.

3. A copy of Army Form B. 279, duly filled up, will, at the same time, be sent to the officers concerned.

4. Before transmission the documents should be arranged in the sequence shown on this form and placed within it. A separate form will be prepared for each man, and in the case of a draft the forms will be arranged alphabetically. Should any document be missing, an explanation of the deficiency, signed by the commanding officer, must be substituted.

5. The statement of accounts, Army Form O. 1811 (and Army Form O. 1814, in the case of men transferred to the army reserve), will be sent as directed in the Financial Instructions.

6. When a man is transferred on probation to a departmental corps, the Army Service Corps, or the Royal Army Medical Corps, the following documents only will be forwarded, the other documents being retained until the transfer is confirmed:—

- a. Statement of accounts (Army Form O. 1811).
- b. Savings bank transfer statement.
- c. List of necessities.
- d. Clothing return.
- e. Regimental conduct sheet.
- f. Squadron, troop, battery, or company conduct sheet.
- g. Medical history sheet.
- h. Copy of 3rd page of attestation.

7. When an army schoolmaster is moved from a home station to a station abroad, the duplicate attestation will be forwarded to the officer i/c records, War Office, in order that the necessary entries may be made in the original attestation.

The other documents specified on this form (except the list of necessities and musketry transfer return), will be sent direct to the Commander-in-Chief in India, or to the General Officer Commanding in the Command to which the schoolmaster has been posted.

When a schoolmaster is moved from one home station to another, his documents, including duplicate attestation, will be sent direct to the officer commanding the school to which he has been posted. When moved from abroad to a home station, all the documents will be sent to the officer i/c records, War Office.

When a schoolmaster is moved from one station to another abroad, his documents, including the duplicate attestation will, if the stations are in the same command, be sent to the officer commanding the new school. If moved to a new command or to India, they will be sent to the General Officer Commanding in the Command, or Commander-in-Chief in India.

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO THE RECEIPT OF DOCUMENTS.

1. Officers receiving documents should at once check them by the entries in this form. If any document is missing they must at once apply for it, as they will be held answerable for any deficiency which may afterwards be found to exist.

2. They will then sign Army Form B. 279 and return it to the officer from whom the documents were received.
