Kay Hall wears white chiffon velvet gown

Wearing a bridal gown of white chiffon velvet, Katherine Patricia Hall exchanged marital vows with William E. Owen in St. Paul's pro-cathedral Dec. 13. The Very Rev. Dean W. Cole was officiating clergyman. Variegated 'mums formed the background for the nuptial ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hall, Regina, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Owen, also of Regina.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white velvet gown, fashioned with puffed sleeves, a square neckline and bustle back. A coronet of white bugle beads held her full fingertip veil in place. She wore white elbow length gloves and a double strand of pearls, gift of the groom. White baby 'mums and Talisman roses made up her bouquet.

Mrs. D. Johnson and Miss Olive Beston were her attendants. Their gowns were of red chiffon velvet, featuring puffed sleeves and full skirts. They wore elbow mitts in matching velvet and carried bouquets of daisy chrysanthemums in a contrasting yellow shade.

The groom was attended by J. W. More.

Douglas Johnson and E. Bennet acted as ushers.

During the signing of the register, Miss Evelyn Douglas sang "Through The Years." Her organ accompanist was B. M. Laubach.

A reception followed in the blue lounge of the Hotel Saskatchewan. Parents of the bride and groom received with the bridal party. The bride's mother wore a silver trimmed turquoise dress of grey crepe. Her black velvet hat was accented by a pink ostrich plume. Mrs. Owen, mother of the groom, chose a dress of grey crepe edged with royal blue satin. The brim of her off-the-face black hat was covered with black sequins, and tied with a veil at the back.

Miss Dorothy Hall, aunt of the bride and Mrs. H. C. Kirkpatrick, presided at the tea table. Servers at the reception were Mrs. G.E. Smith, Mrs. J.W. More, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. E. Bennett, Mrs. H. McNeil, Mrs. A.W. Chadwick, Miss Elaine Farnsworth and Miss Jean deWitt. Jack Hamilton proposed the toast to the bridal couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen left for a Saskatoon honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 2230 Rae street.
