That we are the applicants for letters of Probate of the Last Will and Testament of Robert Hall, deceased, August who died on or about the 2nd day of July, A.D. 1928 domiciled in Regina aforesaid.

That we have caused to be filed in the office of the clerk of the above named court a petition praying that letters Probate of the Last Will and Testament of the said deceased be granted by the said court.

That we have made full, careful and searching inquiry for the purpose of ascertaining what real and personal property and effects the said deceased was possessed of or entitled to, at the time of his death, together with the market value thereof respectively at the time of his death.

That we have according to the best of our knowledge, information, and belief set forth in the inventory herewith exhibited, marked "A," a full, true and particular account of all the real and personal property of the said deceased or of which he was possessed or to which he was entitled in possession or reversion absolutely or contingently or otherwise howsoever at the time of his death, or of which the deceased was competent to dispose, or over which he had a general power of appointment, together with the market value as at the date of death, of each and every asset forming part of the said real and personal property and particularised in the said inventory. The gross value of the estate wherever situate as at the date of deceased's death was $9805.19.

That we have included in the said inventory every security, debt, and sum of money outstanding, due or payable to, or standing to the credit of the said deceased at the time of his death and in estimating the value thereof have included all the interest due, payable, chargeable and accruing due thereon up to the death of the said deceased.

That save and except what is set forth in the said inventory the said deceased was not, to the best of our knowledge, information and belief at the time of his death possessed of, or entitled to, any debt or sum of money or any security, pledge or undertaking for the payment of any money to him on any account whatsoever, or to any leasehold or other personal estate, goods, chattels or effects in possession or reversion absolutely or contingently or otherwise howsoever.

That we have included in the said inventory all the property of the said deceased situate out of Saskatchewan as well as the property situated in Saskatchewan.

That save and except what is set forth in the said inventory the said deceased was not, to the best of our knowledge, information and belief at the time of his death, seized of, or entitled to, any real estate in possession, remainder and reversion absolutely or contingently or otherwise howsoever.

That, to the best of our knowledge, information and belief the said deceased did not voluntarily transfer by deed, grant or gift, made in contemplation of his death, or made, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after his death, any property or any interest therein, or income therefrom, to any person in trust or otherwise by reason whereof any person is or shall become beneficially entitled in possession or expectancy in or to the said property, or income thereof.

That, to the best of our knowledge, information and belief the said deceased did not at any time transfer to any person any property whatsoever by way of DONATIO MORTIS CAUSA nor did he since the twenty-first day of November, 1903, make any disposition of property operating or purporting to operate as an immediate gift INTER VIVOS, whether by way of transfer, delivery, declaration of trust, or otherwise, nor did he at any time previous to his death, transfer any property, of which property the BONA FIDE possession was not assumed by the donee immediately upon the gift, and thenceforth retained to the entire exclusion of the donor, or of any benefit to him, whether voluntarily, or by contract, or otherwise, except the property set out in the schedule marked Exhibit "B" and the fair market value of such property on the amount thereof, the person or persons to whom it was given, their addresses, the relationship in which they stand to the deceased and the dates when so given are therein correctly set out, and such transfer or other gift was made absolutely to the donee and took effect in the lifetime of the deceased and was part of his ordinary and normal expenditure for the maintenance and advancement of the persons so benefited.

That, to the best of our knowledge, information and belief, the said deceased did not transfer or cause to be transferred to or vested in him self and any other person jointly any property to which he was absolutely entitled, so that the beneficial interest therein, or in some part thereof, passed or accrued by survivorship on his death to such other person, nor did he make or effect, or cause to be made or effected, either by him self alone, or in concert, or by arrangement with any other person, any purchase or investment of property whatsoever for any other person, or in trust for him, except as set out in the said inventory.

That, to the best of our knowledge, information and belief, the said deceased was not at the time of his death a party to any past or future settlement, including any trust whether expressed in writing or otherwise, whether made for valuable consideration or not, as between the settlor and any other person, and not taking effect as a will, whereby an interest in such property or the proceeds of the sale thereof for life, or any other period determinable by reference to death, was reserved expressly or by implication to the deceased, or whereby the deceased reserved to him self the right by the exercise of any power to restore to him self or to reclaim the absolute interest in such property or proceeds of the sale thereof, or otherwise resettle the same, or any part thereof, except as set out in the said inventory.

That, to the best of our knowledge, information and belief, no annuity, policy of insurance, or other interest had been purchased or provided by the said deceased, either by him self alone, or in concert or by arrangement with any other person, except as set out in the said inventory.

That we have in the schedule marked Exhibit "C" set forth the names of the several persons to whom the property of the said deceased will pass, the degrees of relationship, if any, in which they stand to the deceased, their addresses so far as we can ascertain them, and the nature and value of the property passing to each of these persons respectively, and that the several persons who receive annuities or estates for life, or bequests of income were on their last birthday previous to the date of deceased's death the ages respectively set opposite their names.

After the name of official or person before whom the affidavit is made ought to appear his official character or title, such as a commissioner for oaths in and for the Province of Saskatchewan or a notary public in and for the Province of Saskatchewan or as the case may be.
