

DIED.

On the 23d instant, aged 42 years, Frances, the beloved wife of Mr. William Franks, and fourth daughter of Mr. Samuel Wild.

On the 23d instant, at Chorley, aged 68 years, Richard Southurst, Esq., of Duxbury Park, a magistrate and deputy-lieutenant for this county.

On the 23d instant, at her residence, 25, Catharine-street, aged 34 years, Mary Ann, the beloved wife of Bernard Hall, Esq., and eldest daughter of the late William Titley, Esq., of Kingston, Jamaica.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, AND DEATHS

BIRTHS.

On the 22nd instant, at Lime-grove, near Prescot, Mr. W. W. of Wrenfield, of a daughter, Mr. W. W. of Wrenfield.

On the 26th instant, at Woodland-terrace, Tranmere, the wife of Mr. W. W. of Wrenfield, of a daughter, Mr. W. W. of Wrenfield.

On the 26th instant, at Cliff Villa, Seacombe, Mr. J. Rathbone, of a daughter, Mr. J. Rathbone.

On the 19th instant, at Fairfield-hall, Mr. Shand, of a daughter, Mr. Shand.

On the 18th instant, at Mulberry-street, Mr. John Hughes, of a daughter, Mr. John Hughes.

On the 18th instant, at the New Wellington Hotel, Pwllheli, the wife of Mr. John Williams, seaman, of a daughter, Mr. John Williams.

On the 17th instant, at 10, St. George's-street, Mr. John Hughes, of a daughter, Mr. John Hughes.

On the 17th instant, at Mersey-river, Tranmere, the wife of Mr. W. W. of Wrenfield, of a daughter, Mr. W. W. of Wrenfield.

On the 14th instant, at Ferry-street, Mr. Francis Foster, of a daughter, Mr. Francis Foster.

On the 13th instant, at Free Dry, Conway, North Wales the wife of John D. Bell, Rev. barrister-at-law, of a daughter, Mrs. Mary Ann Bell, aged 10 years, widow of Mr. Haden of Rodney-street, of a daughter.

On the 13th instant, Mrs. J. P. Platt, Ekrine-street, of a daughter, Miss Mary Platt.

On the 12th instant, at Slatt-street, Cloughton, Mrs. Tonge, of a daughter.

On the 12th instant, at Woodlands, Clifton-park, Birkenhead, Mrs. J. De Paiva, of a daughter.

On the 30th instant, at Buenos Ayres, the wife of Mr. Thos. Stobbs, of this town, of a daughter, Miss Mary Stobbs.

At the Parsonage, Wellington, the wife of the Rev. T. L. Butler, of a son and heir.

MARRIED.

On the 23d instant, at the parish church, Barry, by the Rev. Canon Edgars, and read by the Rev. W. K. Morrison, brother of the bridegroom, David James Morrison, youngest son of David Morrison, Rev. M. D. of this town, and Miss Mary Morrison, daughter of the Rev. W. K. Morrison, head master of the Grammar School, and incumbent of St. John's Church, of a daughter, Miss Mary Morrison.

On the 23d instant, at St. Bride's Church, James and the late Mr. Robert Graham, and Mary Elizabeth, only daughter of the late Mr. Robert Perkins.

On the 23d instant, at Churchville, Clingston, by the Rev. Dr. Siskney, L.L.D. Mr. John Cundiff, of Oxford, to the Rev. A. S. Cundiff, daughter of Mr. Wm. Arac, of Thornwood, Clingston.

On the 22d instant, at St. Mary's Church, Harnett, between the Rev. Mr. Siskney, and the Rev. Mr. A. S. Cundiff, of Oxford, to the Rev. Mr. Siskney, only son of William O'Neil, M.A. rector, John Stewart, of the same place, and Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late Mr. Siskney, of the same place, second daughter of William H. Bay, of the same place.

On the 22d instant, at Woodchurch, Cheshire, by the Rev. Mr. H. Kemp, incumbent of St. John's Church, Hull, John Joseph, of the same place, and Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late Mr. Siskney, of the same place, second daughter of William H. Bay, of the same place, and late of Hull.

On the 22d instant, at the parish church, Newbernham, Gloucestershire, between the Rev. Mr. Siskney, and the Rev. Mr. A. S. Cundiff, of Oxford, to the Rev. Mr. Siskney, only son of William O'Neil, M.A. rector, John Stewart, of the same place, and Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late Mr. Siskney, of the same place, second daughter of William H. Bay, of the same place, and late of Hull.

On the 22d instant, at the parish church, Foxcroft, Essex, between the Rev. John Foster, rector, and the Rev. A. S. Bay, of the same place, to the Rev. John Foster, youngest son of the late Wm. Foster, of the same place, and Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late Mr. Siskney, of the same place, second daughter of William H. Bay, of the same place, and late of Hull.

daughter of the late S. G. Marshall, esq. H.B.M. comes from the for northern department of France.

On the 16th instant at St. Paul's Church, by the Rev. H. H.
F. Frank, A. M. William Peck, of Leicester, to Sarah Ann daughter of Thomas Tipping, late keeper of the Liverpool County Gaol.

On the 20th instant, at St. Barnabas's Church, by the Rev. H.
J. Underwood, Mr. Samuel Pitcher to Miss Mary Ann Williams.

On the 19th instant, at St. Silas's Church, by the Rev. E. F. F.
George Leblond, Esq. to Anne Lambert, sister of Susannah Pennington, Norton-street.

On the 17th instant, at St. Paul's Church, by the Rev. H. H.
J. Underwood, Mr. James Bennett to Miss Mary Ann
Devlin, both of this town.

On the 17th instant at Walton Church, by the Rev. Thos.
H. H. Thomas, Esq. to Hannah Cook, daughter of
of this town.

On the 16th instant, at St. Michael's-in-the-Hamlet, by the Rev. H. H. Thomas, Esq. to Elizabeth, daughter of Abbot, Devon, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. Elizabeth Cook, of this parish.

On the 16th instant at St. Paul's Church, Chesham, by the Rev. C. Sharpe, John P. Birch, surgeon, Frodoam, to Elizabeth, daughter of John P. Birch, Esq. of [illegible]

On the 16th instant, at All Saints' Church, by the Rev. J. M. Williams, M. A., the marriage of Miss Agnes Jane, youngest daughter of the late Mr. Richard Smith of this town, to Mr. John W. Newell, eldest son of the late Mr. W. P. Newton, B. A., at St. Brice's Church, by the Rev. W. F. Newton, B. A., was solemnized. Miss Agnes Jane was daughter of Mr. Wm. Henry Hodges.

On the 17th instant, at St. Brice's Church, Geelong, Australia, by the Rev. George Goodman, M. A., Mr. David Williams, formerly of this town, was married to the late John Swadlow, Esq., of Charlton, Co. Wick, daughter of the late John Swadlow, Esq., of Charlton, Co. Wick.

DIED.

On the 23rd instant, aged 42 years, Frances, the beloved wife of Mr. William Franka, and fourth daughter of the late Mr. John Franka, at her residence, 26, Catherine-street, Southend, Esq., of Duxbury Park, a magistrate and deputy lieutenant of the county of Essex.

On the 23rd instant, at her residence, 26, Catherine-street, Southend, Esq., the beloved wife of Bernard H. Franka, Esq., and eldest daughter of the late William Tillyer, Esq., of Kingston, Jamaica.

On the 23rd instant, at his residence, Myrtle-street, Southend, Esq., aged 57 years, Mr. Thomas Wallat.

On the 21st instant, after an illness of twenty-four hours, died at his residence, 10, Upper Marlborough street, London, David Edwards, well known businessman, 80, Upper-lane, Evesham.

On the 21st instant, at the residence of his son-in-law, died at the age of 70 years, Mr. William Lane, 10, Upper Marlborough street, London.

On the 20th instant, at the residence of his daughter, died at 30½ years, Catherine Pinkerton, 10, Upper Marlborough street, London.

On the 20th instant, at Kirkley-street, aged 88 years, Mr. Hugh Denham, 10, Upper Marlborough street, London.

On the 19th instant, at his residence, Prince's-terrace, died at the age of William Carver, Esq., timber merchant, 10, Upper Marlborough street, London.

On the 19th instant, at his residence, Lincolndene, near Bury, died at the age of 70 years, Mr. Charles Edward Stanslow, 10, Upper Marlborough street, London.

On the 19th instant, aged 69 years, died Mr. Charles Edward Stanslow, 10, Upper Marlborough street, London.

On the 19th instant, at his residence, aged 24 years, Mr. Robert of Mr. Samuel Jenkins, Robert Jenkins, an only son, died at the age of 24 years, Mr. Robert Jenkins, 10, Upper Marlborough street, London.

On the 18th instant, at Clatter, aged 70 years, Captain John R. N., 10, Upper Marlborough street, London.

On the 18th instant, at 25, Myrtle-street South, aged 5 years, Miss Roberts, for upwards of fifty years a member of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, 10, Upper Marlborough street, London.

[illegible][illegible]

ment, at the shortest possible notice. The balance of the day was spent in the company of the military, enabling them to suggest or supply every necessary for such occasions. The BAWNSMEN are constantly redesignated as NOVITIENES in Mourning Military and Marine. PUGIL had 12 PROSPERITORS, 114, BOLESTRAZUM (corner of Colquhoun and

FURNISHES, as usual.

ment, at the shortest possible notice. The balance of the day was spent in the company of the military, enabling them to suggest or supply every necessary for such occasions. The BAWNSMEN are constantly redesignated as NOVITIENES in Mourning Military and Marine. PUGIL had 12 PROSPERITORS, 114, BOLESTRAZUM (corner of Colquhoun and

FURNISHES, as usual.